

The yellow area is the approximate limits of the project where the limited scope of work approved under this first construction contract will occur.