

Existing Land Use

An illustration of general categories of current land use intensities over the 22,000 acre area of Incorporated Castle Rock. The designations take into account current land use patterns and zoning. This is not a zoning map. Open space that is partially or fully managed by the Town but is outside the Town limits is included as part of this representation. Not included here are the right-of-ways maintained by the Town which totals 1158 acres of land.
